MAXIMILIAN.

Curious Rumor—Reported Quarrel—The Emperor of Austria and his Brother.

[From the Avenir National.]

Several journals have stated that secret instructions interdicted the emperor, of Mexico from re-entering Austrian territory. We now receive some more precise information on the subject. It refers to a quarrel between Maximilian and his brother, the emperor of Austria, the origin of which dates back some time.

Before leaving for Mexico, the archduke signed at Miramar, toward the end of April, 1864, a document in which he renounced all claim for himself and his descendants, if he should have any, to the throne and patrimonial possessions of the house of Hapsburg. Scarcely, however, had he assumed the crown of Mexico when he sent to the principal European powers a protest against that renunciation. This step alienated the two brothers from each other for a long time, and it was only by means of the good offices of the late king of the Belgians that his son-in-law was restored to favor at the court of Austria. But some time since the American journals published a letter written by M. Eloin, private secretary to the emperor of Mexico, and addressed to this latter.

In that missive, which had been intercepted by the Juarists, M. Eloin expressed himself with remarkable bluntness respecting the internal condition of the Austrian empire, on the discontent caused by the defeat of the imperial armies, the diminution of the influence of the Vienna government, and the prospects which, as a consequence of these events, might present themselves to the emperor's brother. The publication of this letter, which has not been disavowed either by M. Eloin or by his master, revived the resentment of Francis Joseph, and determined him to interdict his brother from all access to the posts and territories of his empire. Our correspondent adds that great efforts are being made to bring about a fresh reconciliation and the withdrawal of a decision which would place Maximilian in a position of great embarrassment the day on which he should be compelled to leave Mexico.

THE REPORTED CONSPIRACY TO MAKE MAXIMILIAN EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA.

[From the Avenir National, December 19.]

Yesterday La France excited public attention by this mysterious sentence: "A grave report is in circulation with respect to the Emperor Maximilian, but before giving currency to it we shall wait for more certain information." The information which La France is waiting for we (the Avenir) will give. The journals and correspondence from Vienna speak openly of the aspiration—it cannot yet be called conspiracy—of the Austrian army to place the Emperor Maximilian on the throne of Austria. This strange news seems to be confirmed by our private letters.

THE RESOURCES OF TENNESSEE—ITS COPPER MINES.

Few of our people appear to realize the buried wealth that slumbers in our hills and valleys, awaiting only the magic touch of the genius industry. The following report embodying valuable figures bearing on the copper mines of East Tennessee, is clipped from a circular published at New York by the American bureau of mining. It was compiled by Dr. Trippel and Prof. Credner:

It is probable that the East Tennessee mine alone will produce 1000 tons of 10 per cent. ore monthly, when the improvements now in progress are completed. The very moderate supposition of 800 tons, monthly product, will be assumed in these estimates; and the other mines of the consolidated company will be left out of view altogether.

The first statement represents the present system; the second includes the dressing of the ores, and exhibits the additional profits of such a measure:

1 Mining expenses for 800 tons 10 per cent. ore .... $ 8,000
Smelting expenses (179,200 lbs. of copper at 9 cents 16,128
Freight and general expenses, 3 cents per pound 5,376

Total expense, 16.4 cents per lb. of copper $29,504
Value of 179,200 lbs. of copper, at 30 cents 53,760

Net monthly profit $24,256

2. Mining expenses for 800 tons .... $ 8 000
Dressing ore up to 15 per cent 1,500
Smelting expenses (6¼ cents per lb.) 11 649
Freight and general expenses, 3 cents per lb. 5,376

Total expenses, 14 8 cts per lb of copper .... $ 6,524
Value of 179,200 lbs copper at 30 cents 53,760

Net monthly profit $27,2 6

These figures exhibit an annual profit from the mining and smelting works of $326,832, to which should be added the profit from about 110,000 pounds of cement copper, produced in the Isabella mine.

It is confidently expected by the general agent, that the coast of materials, fuel, etc., will not advance in the next three years, especially since the company has already secured large amounts of timber land. The above estimates will hold good so long as present prices are maintained. The projected increase of monthly production at the East Tennessee to 1000 tons, or the development of others of the company's mines, would reduce materially almost every item of cost. It is fairly estimated that copper will then be produced for not more than twelve cents per lb—a cost far below the average statistics of this industry at Lake Superior, and one which would secure an ample margin of profit to the producer, even in the most unfavorable condition of the market.

WOMAN AND MARRIAGE.

I have speculated a great deal on matrimony. I have seen young and beautiful women, the pride of gay circles, married, as the world says, well. Some have moved into their costly houses, and their friends have all come and looked at their furniture and their splendid home for happiness, and have gone away and committed them to their sunny hopes cheerfully and without fear. It is natural to be sanguine for them, as the young are carried away with similar feelings. I love to get, unobserved, in a corner and watch the bride in her white attire, and with her smiling face and soft eyes meeting me in the pride of life, weave a waking dream of future happiness, and persuade myself it will be true. I think how they will sit upon the luxurious sofa as the twilight falls, and build gay hopes and murmur in low tones the not now forbidden tenderness; and how thrillingly the allowed kiss and beautiful endearments of the wedded life will make even their parting joyous, and how gladly they will come back from the crowded and empty mirth of the day to each other's quiet company. I picture to myself that young creature who blushes even now at his hesitating caress, listening eagerly for his footsteps as the night steals on, wishing he would come, and when he enters at last, and with an affection as undying as his pulse, folds her to his bosom, I can feel the tide that goes flowing through the heart, and gaze with him on the graceful form as she moves about for the kind offices of affection, soothing all his unquiet cares, and making him forget even himself in her young and unshadowed beauty. I go forward for years and see her luxuriant hair put soberly away from her brow; and her girlish graces resigned into dignity, and loveliness chastened with the gentle meekness of maternal affection. Her husband looks on with a proud eye, and shows the same fervent love and delicate attentions which first won her; and her fair children are grown about them, and they go on, full of honor and untroubled years, and are remembered when they die.—Irving.

The population of Houston, Texas, is said to be 30,000. In 1860 it had but 5000 inhabitants.

The Beautiful Snow.

A disgusted southerner in Canada writes the following ode to the snow and frost of that country:

Oh! the frost, the freezing frost, biting our nose as we go; all sense of feeling is utterly lost, and our zest for the beautiful snow. The northern king a tribute has wrung, in the shape of a pearly tear, which a moment ago like a dew drop hung, from the point often graced with a sneer. Oh! the frost, the delectable frost, that finds us wherever we go, wrapped in its fearsome shroud like a ghost, and conveying to our meridian blood a thorough disgust for those sentimental donkeys who hypocritically prate of the beautiful snow.

GROVER & BAKER'S

CELEBRATED

Elastic Stitch and Lock Stitch

SEWING MACHINES!

Why Grover & Baker's Machine is Best

1. It is more simple, durable, and less liable to derangement than others.
2. It sews from ordinary spools, and no re-winding of thread is necessary.
3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate and the heaviest, and with all kinds of thread, silk, cotton or linen.
4. Its seam is so strong and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every sixth stitch, remains firm, and neither runs or ravels in its wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness after washing better than any other.
8. Its seam can be removed in altering garments, after proper inspection, without picking or cutting them.
9. Watching and varying the tensions upon the threads, necessary in other machines, is unnecessary in this. The tension being once adjusted on the Grover & Baker Machine, any amount of sewing may be done without change.
10. It makes beautiful embroidery without any change or arrangement, simply by inserting threads of suitable sizes and colors for this purpose. It is the only machine that both embroiders and sews perfectly.

The attention of Tailors, Manufacturers of Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Carriage Trimmers and all others requiring the best and most effective Lock-stitch Machines, is invited to our new Shuttle Machine, especially adapted to Manufacturing purposes.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 1, 1866.

We have this day associated with us in business, Mr. H. M. BUGHER, under the name and style of Anderson, Gay & Bugher.

ANDERSON & GAY.

DEAR SIR:

We would respectfully call your attention to our card above. Having been long engaged in the Grocery and Cotton Factorage business in this place, with superior facilities for the transaction of the same, and an intimate knowledge of the wants of the planting community, we feel confident we can conduct your business to your advantage and entire satisfaction. Our GROCERY DEPARTMENT, with the increased facilities at our command, together with our long experience in the trade, we can guarantee to our friends and customers a full and varied stock, which will enable us at all times to fill their orders promptly and at the lowest market rates. One of our house will devote his entire time and attention to the sale of COTTON. Having a thorough knowledge of the same, and being sellers only, we can always obtain the highest market prices. We are prepared to make advances on Cotton consigned to us. All consignments of Cotton will be covered with Insurance in our open policy, unless otherwise ordered. By a strict attention to business, we trust to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage already extended us. Soliciting a share of your business, we remain, very respectfully, our obedient servants,

LIBERAL CASH ADVANCES MADE ON Cotton and other Produce consigned to me. BAGGING, ROPE AND OTHER SUPPLIES furnished at the lowest market prices. All consignments of Cotton insured unless otherwise instructed.

The disastrous results of the late war having forced me to dispose of most of my property, I have concluded to undertake this business, here in the midst of my old friends, for the purpose of making an honest living for myself and family by my own labor, and to retrieve, as far as it may be possible, the losses entailed by the late war. To my old friends, and to all who may feel disposed to give me their business, I pledge my personal attention to its efficient transaction. se22

THE NATIONAL BANKING SYSTEM.

The Washington Intelligencer throws out some important suggestions on this subject which are worthy the consideration of all thoughtful readers: There is a growing disposition on the part of the house to regulate or essentially modify the national banking system. The project which was introduced by Mr. S. J. RANDALL, of Pennsylvania, on Monday, accords with the opinions heretofore expressed on the part of the house by a vote wanting but three of a majority. It seems probable, therefore, that the proposition of Mr. RANDALL is to be seriously entertained by the banking and currency committee, and by the house. Mr. RANDALL's bill provides that the secretary of the treasury issue, for the purposes set forth—the creation of a sinking fund of eighteen millions a year toward the payment of the national debt and for cancelling the issues of the national banks—a sum not exceeding three hundred millions of dollars of treasury notes, not bearing interest, which shall be lawful money and a legal tender for the payment of debts, and that these notes, the amount of which issue in any one year shall not exceed one hundred millions, shall be only in exchange for notes issued by national banks and for the purchase of certain portions of the national debt. The national bank notes so purchased are to be cancelled, and the United States bonds deposited for the security of such issues shall be transferred to the commissioner of the sinking fund, to be established by that act, to be kept till maturity, collecting the interest upon them, and reinvesting all moneys so received in the purchase of other evidences of national debt.

Eighteen millions a year would thus be saved by the treasury when the act shall be in full operation, and this amount would form a sinking fund that will alone extinguish the national debt quite as fast as, in the opinion of many, it ought to be extinguished, with due regard to the necessity for the reduction of taxation.

This scheme has, for months past, had advocates in the press. The objections made to it were that it might force some of the banks to wind up, to the prejudice of their debtors, and that the government would be deprived of the valuable services which these banks have rendered, as is made to appear in the report of Mr. HULBURD, comptroller of the currency, by transferring funds for the government free from expense, and in acting as government depositories. But the government can pay, as it formerly did, for the transfer of specie in bulk; and as for the rest, it can use the ordinary facilities of exchange, as private individuals do.

In regard to the banks as government depositories, there is evil lurking in the system, and the sooner the government returns to the old subtreasury plan, which won its way into public favor in opposition to party prejudice, the better.

The national banks would, under the bill now offered, be enabled to use their capital in banking. They would have, besides, government deposits, though not, it is hoped, at the former amounts, and besides, the entire private deposits of business communities and capitalists that cannot, in the present state of our political and financial affairs, find any employment for their money. The banks have hundreds of millions of dollars in greenbacks, with which they do an immense business by promoting and sustaining the speculators, monopolists, stock-jobbers, and gold operators. There will be little legitimate use for the flood of money until a very decided change shall have taken place in the aspect of public affairs. The banks would have almost the exclusive benefit of the use of this money for some time to come.

The public journals have from time to time thrown out important views on this subject, and have indicated the propriety of some modification of the banking system, as soon as the condition of the country will permit it. An abrupt abolition of the system would neither be prudent nor polite; but, according to Mr. RANDALL's plan, it may be gradually and safely modified.

The following remarks upon the banking system as it is, from the Chicago Times, are not out of place here, to-wit:

These national banks have a circulation of some $300,000,000, to obtain which they have deposited a trifle over that amount in government bonds with the treasurer of the United States. Upon these bonds they receive interest in gold, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, while they have the use of this immense circulation, equal to the par value of their bonds, for nothing. This circulation they lend to the people, and are authorized to charge interest for it at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, and this six per cent. in gold, equal to nine per cent. in currency, swells the total interest which they receive to nineteen per cent. per annum upon their nominal capital. But their bonds scarcely cost them more than fifty cents on the dollar, in actual bona fide money, and hence their nominal capital is about as twice as much as their actual capital, and, instead of nineteen per cent., they actually receive thirty-eight per cent. upon their real paid in capital. This is upon bonds and circulation alone, and does not include the immense sums which they realize from the buying and selling of exchange, the immense profits accruing from the use of the heavy government balances, which are left with them from time to time, neither the enormous income derived from the use of their individual deposits, etc.

Now, when the government returns to the banks, in the shape of notes of issue, all the money they have invested in the bonds deposited, why should the government allow them also the interest upon these bonds? It is an absolute and undeserved gratuity, paid out of the federal treasury to associations which have performed no service, and promise to perform no service, in return for it. Now, the interest upon this $300,000,000 in bonds amounts to $18,000,000 per annum in gold, or $9,000,000 every six months, for the interest is payable semi-annually. Nine millions in gold every six months is a good deal for the people to throw away, with their enormous public debt and the grievous taxation which is pressing like a mountain of lead upon their shoulders, especially when it brings them not one single advantage or benefit in return. We are aware that while millions are being wasted like water, nine million seems a sum so small that our tax-ridden people scarcely think it worth their while to look after it. But this is not simply nine million. It is nine million every six months, as long as this pernicious system shall have an existence. And beside a steady link of nine million every six months, without cessation or intermission, all the other acts of wasteful extravagance and misappropriation of the people's money during the war are dwarfed into insignificance. It is a leak through which the wealth of a universe might disappear.

Gov. Saulsbury, in his message to the Delaware legislature, opposes the constitutional amendment, approves of the selling of negroes into slavery as the best punishment for crime, and the salutary restraint against its commission, recommends laws restricting negro immigration, and declares his purpose to enforce the laws against negroes possessing arms.

What will we not buy and need if it comes to us across the water? The veriest trash. The weakest and most immoral trash is purchased by our American publishers if the author has a foreign address. America should cease to imitate. She can afford to originate. And those who have bravely taken the first steps from the beaten path of imitation should be encouraged. Among the artists, and perhaps first on the list, we will write the name of Bierstadt, who has dared to paint the poetry of nature without dressing it in foreign costume.

PARIS FASHIONS.

The return of the court to Paris has given the impulse that was wanting to the development of the Paris fashions for the winter season, which promises to be more than usually long and brilliant, on account of the presence of a number of distinguished foreigners already residing in the capital for the fulfilment of their duties as the representatives of the different nations at the forthcoming exhibition.

Many of the best saloons have already been thrown open, and several charming soirees have assembled the elite of Parisian society. After all, the trailing dresses continue to triumph with our elegantes, and they have been largely in the majority at the evening parties given during the past week in the noble Faubourg and elsewhere.

Dresses, as worn on such occasions, are short-waisted, and the skirts are cut on the cross, and close-fitting half way down the jupe, from which point they increase in amplitude behind only, and do not, in any case, protrude in front or on the sides. This peculiarity requires much care on the part of the couturiere, as the slightest deviation from the mode in question would impart an awkward appearance to this toilette de l'Empire. The jupe-cage imperatrice is the article worn by most ladies for obtaining the moderate amplitude to which we have just referred.

Black or white bonnets are very much patronized at present. The form Marie Stewart has been mostly abandoned for a chapeau, square in front, from which jet or pearl ornaments are made to descend upon the forehead. The short veil is still sometimes worn, but it is decidedly less fashionable than of late.

The New York News says: The enemies of President JOHNSON are anxious to impeach him. Let them abandon their perilous attempts to bring this consummation about through the means of their revolutionary and partisan schemes. Let them impeach him as an accomplice to the taking off in the broad noonday, with a bare twenty-four hours of repentance and prayer allowed to them for preparation to enter the presence of their Maker, of four human beings, who, by the implication of the decision of the supreme court of the United States, were illegally executed. President JOHNSON can find no resource in the excuse that STANTON, in that fateful hour when the warrants were laid before him for his signature, whispered to him: "Mr. President, if you refuse to sign these warrants of execution your enemies will say that you were an accomplice in the assassination of President LINCOLN." If he permitted himself to listen to the evil suggestions of this evil minister, his be the penalty. But let the impeachment be drawn up upon this issue, and let the law be vindicated though the world stand in amaze at its vindication.

PEACE AND GOOD WILL.

The following is taken from a speech delivered in the United States senate, by Mr. Howe, of Wisconsin, on the 5th instant:

He sometimes felt, in listening to some speeches about forgiveness and mercy, that they must be mistaken in supposing that any crime had been committed at all. It had been held by the great writers on international law and upon morals, that the guilt of a war rested upon those who commenced it. He asked where was the pretext of the late war, save that a president had been elected whom the south did not consider the best man. He hoped they had not yet forgotten the bloodshed of the war while they saw their maimed brothers on the street. All this guilt rested on the souls of those whom they were arraigned for treating inhumanly.

The rebels had expended all their force in opposition to the government, and yet what necks had been broken, what blood had been shed in punishment? By law their lives had been forfeited, and yet had not been taken. But they said their lives were useless without their property; yet whose property had been taken away? One man had been imprisoned, it was true; he was not responsible for his not being tried; he did not know that his friends were; if he had been, he (Jefferson Davis) would have been tried and punished long ago. The south had all the rights existing in other states, but they wanted not merely that, but the right to exercise certain powers delegated to states, and other powers. Congress had not, however, assented to this, and whatever inhumanity there was in that, rested upon the shoulders of congress. He thought, though, they might be more comfortable in seats here, still the deprivation would not be serious. When the proper time came, they would be readmitted. Mr. Davis might die at Fortress Monroe, but had he (the speaker) been president of the United States, he probably would have died near there ere this, and no feeling of guilt would trouble him, either.

Items from Kentucky Papers.

The Hickman Courier of the 5th inst. says:

The wheat crop of this section looks very promising, and we are told by farmers that a larger quantity of land has been sown in this grain than has been known for years. During the present frozen spell the large fields afford rich pasturage.

During the past week a detachment of soldiers have been engaged in disinterring the federal dead buried in and near this place, for the purpose of conveying them to a national cemetery at Memphis. They have disinterred thirty bodies. All the dead along the Mississippi river are to be removed to the cemetery at Memphis.

The democracy of Bourbon county held a meeting in Paris and approved the holding of a district convention at Lexington, on the 30th inst., to nominate a congressman. It recommended Richard H. Hanson as first choice and Jas. B. Beck as second choice.

Professor Jo. Desha Pickett, of Mason county, has been tendered the chair of professor of belles letters in the agricultural college of the university of Kentucky, at Lexington.

Georgia Cotton Crop.

Up to January 1, 1860, Forsyth shipped from the Western and Macon railroad depot, in that place, 7348 bales cotton of the product of last year. This year the shipments, actual and established, up to the first of next January, will not vary ten bales from 2460—which shows a little less than a third of the product of 1860. The same proportion would make the product of Georgia 170,000 bales, or thereabouts, and of the whole south about 1,400,000. But we think that Monroe has done better than an average. The talk among the planters of the county is that, but for the drought, they would have made half a crop, but we presume this would have been done at a sacrifice of corn, which will not again be thought of in future agricultural operations.—Macon Journal and Messenger.

General Lee.

Nothing could be more modest and unobtrusive than the course of Gen. Lee since the surrender to Gen. Grant. He has had nothing to do with politics, and, as we learn, does not so much as read the newspapers. His time and attention are exclusively devoted to the performance of his duties as president of Washington college, where, upon a salary of $2500 or $3000, he lives in the plainness and simplicity which have always characterized the man. His example is one which should command the respect of his enemies and the imitation of his friends. No one ever hears from him a solitary word which savors of querulousness or discontent. Cheerful, faithful and true, he is grander in adversity than prosperity, and, tested by all circumstances, exhibits an equanimity of spirit which is proof alike against the flatteries and the frowns of fortune.—Baltimore Transcript.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this point, says the Griffin Star, up to January 1st for this season, reach nearly 4000 bales, and good judges estimate that in the neighborhood of 2000 bales remain in this section tributary to Griffin, making the probable entire receipts about 6000 bales. This is a little less than one-fourth an average crop before the war; but considering that not more than one-half as much land was planted in cotton as formerly, it appears that with all the grumbling and complaining of drought, and other adverse circumstances, the farmers in this vicinity made about a half crop the past year. On the whole, we think the industrious planters' prospects are rather encouraging than otherwise, and hope they will take fresh courage for another year.

A correspondent of a New York newspaper, writing from London, says: "When strikes have exhausted the accumulations of these societies; when capital and business are driven abroad, and a million or so of mechanics and artisans become paupers, parliament will be compelled to come to the rescue. I see more danger to England in this social and industrial question than in all the suffrage movements." The trade unions of England seem to be very rapidly ruining themselves and the manufacturing interests of the country. It would be well if the trade organizations of this country would take an example from what is occurring in Great Britain, and avoid the errors which, in that country, seems destined to prostrate labor reform and drag down with it the industry of the whole island.

End of a Masquerade Ball.

Last night, whilst a great masquerade ball was at the hight of progress at the Turner hall, on South Clark street, about 12 o'clock the revelers were astonished suddenly to see a body of policemen, numbering nearly fifty, march into the hall, surround all present, order them to "fall in," and then march them off, attired as they were in fantastic costumes, to the cells at the armory. The scene on the route of procession to the "slaughter pen" was one which can better be imagined than described, as amongst the prisoners might have been seen devils, dragons, bears, creatures half horse or ass and half man, huge biped fish, cats and other monsters, perambulating bitter bottles, monstrous lizards and one elephant. This grotesque horde, marching, hobbling and limping between two files of grim policemen, some singing, some moodily silent, at dead of night, into the gray arches of the armory building, was a scene worth depicting on canvass. As a matter of course, one and all were charged with being disorderly, and each was fined $5 and costs this morning by Justice Milliken.—Chicago Journal.

Gen. Palmer made a speech before the wool-growers' convention at Springfield, and announced himself in favor of protection. When in Kentucky, the only people whom Palmer favored protecting were negroes. Now the people whom he would protect are the manufacturing classes of New England. It would be a most surprising thing to find a radical who is in favor of protecting something besides negroes and classes. A radical who believes in protecting the whole people would be a rara avis of the first order.

Theodore Tilton says more than half of the laughter done by the American people falls from the mouths of western men. Ah, Mr. Tilton, if you northern radicals persist much longer in your accursed work, you may find that more than half the howls and tears uttered and shed by the American people will issue from the mouths and fall from the eyes of northern men.

Night Dispatches.

NEW ORLEANS, January 15.—Weather clear and windy. Business on levee unusually brisk. Arrived: Ruth, from St. Louis; Mepham, from Louisville. Departed: Mary McDougal, for St. Louis; Amazon, for Cincinnati; Lee, for Vicksburg.

GALVESTON, January 15.—It is reported that Gov. Throckmorton proposes to call a special session of the legislature.

Judge Duval, United States court for the western district of Texas, has delivered a stirring charge to the grand jury. He quotes at great length from the constitution and amnesty proclamation, and says there are reasons to believe that some persons have violated the conditions on which they obtained amnesty, and they should be visited with the punishment and infamy they deserve. The man who avails himself of the amnesty of the government to obtain exemption from punishment, and then violates his oath, is more guilty than one never pardoned. He also advises, in strong terms, the trial and punishment of all those who failed to avail themselves of the amnesty proclamation, and also calls attention to the enforcement of the civil rights bill, and says we do not realize the freedom of our late slaves as we must and should do.

The Austin Intelligencer says that N. G. Council, who was assassinated at Novosota, was a deputy United States marshal, and he was to serve thirty-five writs for Judge Duval's court. This is the supposed cause of the murder.

WASHINGTON, January 15.—Senate.—The chair laid before the senate a communication from the governor of South Carolina transmitting the certificate of election of James B. Campbell, which was laid on the table.

Howard called up the resolution heretofore introduced by him, instructing the committee on foreign relations to inquire into the present relations between France, Mexico and the United States, as to the possibility of the withdrawal of the French troops, and as to the ability of Maximilian to maintain himself, etc. Howard said that the trade and commerce of this country had been so much injured by the war carried on for several years, and the people wanted to know the exact status, and the dignity and interest of the nation required that the government should take such measures as will receive the immediate restoration of peace and the reinstallment of a republican government.

The resolution was laid aside for the bill regulating the tenure of office, and the discussion on the latter continued until the adjournment.

House.—The house took up the bill for the admission of Nebraska into the Union. The senate had inserted as a condition to the admission that the word "white" in the Nebraska constitution, should not discriminate against the citizens on account of race or color. Mr. Boutwell moved as an amendment to substitute as a condition precedent, that the Nebraska legislature should give suffrage to all without distinction as to race or color. During the debate, Mr. Davis, of New York, desired to know if congress had the right to impose conditions upon a new state, and to enforce that condition without the consent of the people.

Mr. Farnsworth, of Illinois, said that congress clearly had that right. It was simply granting a territory a charter to become a state, and there was as much authority to impose a condition as to impose one on a territory while it was a territory.

Mr. Hise, of Kentucky, and others opposed the bill, when it was passed with Mr. Boutwell's amendment, by a vote of 103 against 55.

The bill for the admission of Colorado, with a similar condition precedent, was passed by a vote of 90 against 58, and the house then adjourned.

HARRISBURG, PA., January 15.—Simon Cameron, the senator elect, made a speech this afternoon and declared his opposition to universal amnesty.

ALBANY, N. Y., January 15.—Roscoe Conkling was elected senator to-day.

HARRISBURG, January 15.—Simon Cameron was elected United States senator to-day. The democrats voted for Cowan.

LONDON, January 15.—The ice on the lake in the regent's park broke through this evening while it was crowded with skaters. Over two hundred persons were precipitated into the water, and over thirty were drowned.

Dent & Co., a well known firm engaged in the Chinese and India trade, and who were forced some time since to suspend, have resumed their relations with the business world.

The British government has sent a note to Greece advising her to preserve a strict neutrality in the affairs of Candia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 15.—The question which arose between the Porte and the American legation here in regard to the complaints made by the United States consul at Cypress against the local authorities of that island, have been settled to the mutual satisfaction of both parties.

NAPLES, January 15.—A violent tempest visited this bay last night. Twenty-four ships were wrecked, but only a few lives are reported lost.

PARIS, January 15.—A detachment of French troops from Mexico have arrived in France.

In Full Operation.

THIS time-honored institution is once more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz: Of Ancient Languages, Mathematics, Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, Moral Philosophy and Modern Languages. In addition to the above the Board of Trustees have established a school of Commercial Science, with the view of giving to the young men of the country a Business Education.

To graduates in all these schools Diplomas are granted, and the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts are conferred upon students who accomplish a certain course. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years and of thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local cause. We profess to educate young men not only morally and mentally but physically also.

Board is Sixteen Dollars per Month. Tuition from $40 to $90, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tuition for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

Rooms in the College free of charge, but the student provides his own furniture, fuel and lights. Young men who are preparing for the ministry and those disabled by the late war who are unable to pay their tuition, will be allowed to attend any or all of the schools free of charge.

This College is situated near Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg county, Virginia. Arrangements are made to transport students from Ridgway Depot, on the Raleigh and Weldon Railroad, whilst a conveyance leaves Roanoke station, on the Richmond and Danville railroad, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the Wolf Trap depot, on the same road, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We solicit a liberal patronage from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, from the West, South and Southwest.

Students will be received at any time. The second term will commence on the 6th day of February next. Young men will be received and prepared for the college proper. For further particulars address the undersigned at Boydton, Mecklenburg county, Va.

BROWN & PERKINS,

BROWN & PERKINS'
Pianos for the People!
420 Broome St., New York.

WE would call the attention of the public to our elegant New Scale Pianos, in the following styles:

STYLE "A," 7 octave, Front large round corners, plain case, either octagon or carved legs, straight bottom, bead moulding on plinth ... $450

STYLE "B," 7 octave, same as style A, with serpentine moulding on plinth, carved legs and lyre ... 500

STYLE "C," 7 octave, Front corners large round, serpentine bottom, mouldings same as on style B, carved lyre and desk, fancy carved legs ... 550

STYLE "D," 7 octave, four large round corners, finished back, mouldings on rim and plinth, serpentine bottom, carved lyre and desk, elegant carved fruit legs ... 600

The above styles are all finished in elegant Rosewood cases, and have the full iron frame, French action, harp pedal, beveled top, ivory keys and key fronts, and exceed in overstrung bass nearly all the 7¼ octave Pianos now manufactured. They are made of the best materials, and for finish, durability, purity and sweetness of tone, cannot be surpassed.

The four styles described above, embody all the essential changes in ext[illegible] case, which are by manufacturers [illegible] to 15 and 20 patterns.

We invite the attention of the public, of dealers and the profession, to a critical examination of the merits of our Pianos.

By avoiding the great expense attending upon costly factories and extensive warerooms in the city, we are enabled to offer these Pianos at prices which defy competition, and invite all to call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere.

When references and testimonials are required by those about to purchase, instead of presenting a display of professional names, we refer to the parties to whom we have sold our Pianos. Their judgment as to the real merits of our instruments as to their durability, touch, sweetness and power of tone, standing in tune, etc., based on actual experience, being of far more value than the mere good opinion of the artist, however capable, who merely tries in a wareroom, instruments in perfect tune and order, which have just received the workmen's last finishing touches.

Our motto is, "Quick sales and small profits." Send for a circular to GRAND BALL AND SOIREE.—The St. Andrew's society will celebrate the birth day of Robert Burns on the 25th instant, by a grand ball and soiree at the Greenlaw opera hall, in a manner that will not only be a credit to them but a pleasure to all who attend. We understand they are making grand preparation, and that the committee on arrangements intend that nothing shall be wanting that will tend to the comfort and entertainment of the guests. Prof. Withers will be there with his celebrated brass band, to discourse sweet music as he only can do it with his well known assistants. The supper, we are told, is to be something better than we have been used to see even on such occasions. One of the best restaurant keepers in the city has been employed for that purpose, and he intends to display his skill on this occasion.

AN EXCITING SCENE.—Yesterday afternoon a very exciting scene occurred near the Catholic church on Adams street. It seems that a negro man was driving an express wagon, in which was a little boy of some ten summers, the son of Mr. McEwen of the firm of Taylor, McEwen & Co. When near the corner of Main and Adams streets the negro boy left the vehicle for the purpose of transacting some business. In the mean time the horses took fright and started eastward at a break neck speed. As soon as the negro discovered the situation he started after them crying to stop the wagon as there was a little boy in it. A large crowd gathered in every direction and the metropolitans used every endeavor to stop the speed of the horses. The negro, however, followed and finally reached the horses, when he laid hold of the bridle and succeeded in checking their speed. The poor fellow felt much relieved when he saw that the boy was not hurt, though the little fellow had been terribly frightened. When the run away was at its hight every one thought there was no possibility of saving the boy and it was only by a miracle that he escaped death.

REMOVAL.—We learn that Bishop Feehan has called upon Rev. Father Thoma to take charge of a German Roman Catholic church at Nashville. His parishioners here have got up a large petition requesting the reverend gentleman be allowed to remain among them. Father Thoma, during his residence in this city, has, by his pious demeanor, unostentatious charity and kind manner, endeared himself to all with whom he has been brought into contact. Wherever his lot may be cast the prayers of many widows and orphans will follow him, and he will ever have the good wishes of his Memphis friends.

MULE STEALING.—An attempt was made night before last to pick the lock of a stable in North Memphis, by a man named Rice and an accomplice whose name is not known. A policeman discovered them, however, before they had succeeded in getting inside the stable, and after shooting at them once or twice arrested Rice—the other party having managed to escape before he came up. Rice was tried before 'Squire Lee yesterday, and bound over to appear at the next term of the criminal court.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—The young man Mosely, charged with stealing the gold watch from Mr. Hastings, on Poplar street on Monday, was examined before 'Squire Creighton yesterday morning, and committed for trial at the criminal court. The evidence against him was conclusive, and he bids fair to serve the state for a term of years.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

At a regular meeting of the board of mayor and aldermen last night, there was present: Hon. Mayor Lofland, Chairman Hulburt, Aldermen Glancy, Powers, Johnson, Cochran, Wickersham, Amis, Lynn, Bolling, O'Donnell, Holst, Townsend, Shaw, Lemon Smith and Passmore.

The minutes of the last regular and special meeting were read and approved.

REPORTS.

The report of the city comptroller showed that the city's account with the city schools showed an indebtedness to the city in the sum of $59,748, exclusive of $40,000 of city bonds, bearing 10 per cent. interest, which were issued by the late board for school purposes. School certificates continue to be presented for payment, and the question submitted whether to pay them or to cease paying until the amount due the city shall have been collected and paid to the city treasurer.

CITY ATTORNEY'S REPORT.

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 14, 1867.
To the Board of Mayor and Aldermen:
In the case of the fire engine lot on the corner of Second and Adams streets, I have to report that upon further investigation of the title of the city to that lot, I find the title good and unencumbered. The claim of the hook and ladder company for any amounts they may have advanced to the city is no charge or lien upon that property, and their claim can in no way affect the sale of the property. The title is clear and unencumbered. If the hook and ladder company has a claim against the city, it can only be in the shape of an account, and is subject to the same kind of settlement as other accounts. I know nothing of the account, as I have never investigated it. If referred to me, and the attorney for the parties, I can then investigate and report to your body.
Very respectfully, R. J. MORGAN, City Attorney.
Filed.

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 14, 1867.
To the Board of Mayor and Aldermen:
I have to report upon the communication of the proprietors of the Avalanche, that they occupy the same relation to the city as other officers elected by the board. Under article 10, section 1 of the ordinances of the city, the city printer is elected annually. The proprietors of the Avalanche were elected by the old board at the same time and by the same authority as other officers, and have the same right to the office for the fortieth corporate year. In the case of Dr. Lynch's, hospital physician, the question was tested and the chancellor held adversely to the city, giving the office to Lynch. The same questions are involved in the Avalanche case. The board will remember that in former communication, I stated that I had taken an appeal in Dr. Lynch's case to the supreme court. If the supreme court should sustain the chancellor in his decision, the parties elected as officers for the fortieth corporate year by the old board, will be entitled to their positions when they are claimed, and should the city take from the proprietors of the Avalanche the printing for that year, it will be liable to them in damages; the damages to be estimated by the amount of profit in the work and probably the cost of any extra material purchased to do the work, or at any rate the loss upon such material. If, however, the supreme court should overrule the court below, these officers will be entitled to no damages, as they were illegally elected by the old board. I cannot but say what I reported in a former communication, that in my opinion the supreme court will overrule the decision made by the chancellor, giving to each board the right to elect its own officers. I would also call the attention of the board to my communication on this subject, made in December last. I then stated that the chancellor held that the board could only remove an officer for cause upon charges brought against him, and he notified to appear and defend, and upon proper proof made before the board; this is the common law. I had thought that the city charter allowed removal at pleasure upon a two-thirds vote, but the court decides otherwise, and directed that the strictness of the common law is still in force, notwithstanding the wording of the charter.
Respectfully, R. J. MORGAN, City Attorney.

A communication from the sheriff was read, reporting the school visitors elect, which has been published in a former issue.

The street commissioner's requisition for a quantity of gunnells, spars, etc., for the use of the city, was granted.

The report of the city engineer was read, received and filed.

A communication from the mayor was read, vetoing the ordinance in reference to the storing of cotton, suggesting it be deferred till the 1st of March.

Alderman Townsend moved that the ordinance be taken up.

Alderman Lynn presented a petition from a large number of the most influential merchants of the city, asking that the ordinance do not pass, who, in a few well timed remarks, urged the question, and argued that if the insurance companies of Memphis who had banded themselves together as a company of underwriters would not insure cotton stored in the business houses of our merchants, insurance companies could be found who would gladly do so. He objected to this class legislation, and thought the ordinance was illegal.

Alderman Townsend was of the opinion that the board had a right to pass such an ordinance, and that it was more for the interest of the merchant than the property holder, and thought that the board should legislate for the benefit of the property holder, as without the moneied men we would have no cities.

Alderman Smith was in favor of the passage of the ordinance.

Alderman Shaw upon reflection saw good reason to change his vote on the ordinance, and was willing to agree with the suggestion of the mayor to defer the matter.

Alderman Boling denied that the property holders built up the city of Memphis; he was in favor of receiving the petition, and annul the ordinance.

Alderman Townsend made a sweeping charge against the cotton merchants, saying that a large number of them daily violated the city ordinance, and thought the board should not pay much attention to the petition of parties who daily violated the city ordinances, and thought the police a dead letter.

On motion of Alderman Amis, the consideration of the mayor's veto was postponed till first March.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Alderman Bolling, chairman of the committee of finance, recommended that the city subscribe $10,000 stock in the Gayoso gas company, provided said gas company will furnish gas at one-half the present price for the city's use. Adopted.

By the same: Account of E. F. Morgan for $62 50, and recommend that the account be allowed.

On motion of Alderman Townsend, the account was referred to the city comptroller to report thereon.

The same committee reported on the account of Gen. Humes, who claims $1000 for legal services rendered the city, and recommended that $500 be paid him. The opinion of several well known attorneys were read, stating that the charge was fair considering the labor performed. Adopted.

COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES.

Alderman Johnson reported the passage of the pavement ordinance.

On motion of Alderman Cochran the ordinance was laid on the table.

COMMITTEE ON PRINTING.

Alderman Powers reported favorably on account of Commercial and Argus for printing. Adopted.

LANDING COMMITTEE.

Alderman Cochran reported the adoption of the resolution passed at the last meeting, in reference to the weighing of coal. Adopted.

FIRE COMMITTEE.

Alderman Smith, chairman, submitted a report suggesting the removal of De Soto fire engine No. 3 to No. 7 engine house on DeSoto street. Adopted.

MARKET COMMITTEE.

Alderman O'Donnell submitted an ordinance repealing the existing ordinance allowing the selling of meats in stores and by hucksters. Passed on its second and final reading.

Alderman Shaw, from the special committee, appointed to investigate the cause of the fire on Madison street and the condition of the building, submitted a report suggesting an ordinance be passed controlling the erection of buildings and providing that good means of egress be provided in all such buildings.

Alderman Powers presented a petition from Mrs. Bankhead, requesting permission to erect a frame house on the corner of Overton and Chickasaw streets within the fire limits.

Alderman Townsend objected to granting the prayer of the petition.

Alderman Passmore was in favor of granting the petition. In a former instance a rich man had got permission of the like kind, and he was in favor of granting to the poor the same privileges that were granted to the rich; and he would in all cases legislate equally for the poor as the rich. Granted.

Alderman Passmore: The petition of Thos. J. Doyle requesting permission to erect similar sheds to those now on the lot for the purpose of a wagon yard. Granted.

A number of petitions were received, and their prayers granted that the taxes on property be remitted while such property was in possession of the United States.

Alderman Lemon presented a petition from H. H. Higbee, the president of the school board, asking a further appropriation of $10,000 for the erection of school houses. Rejected.

A petition was received from George Hook and A. Hasket, asking permission to erect a frame house on the corner of Jackson and Promenade streets. Referred to the fire committee.

Charles Wolman asked to be allowed to open a gallery of arts on Main street, consisting of statuary and paintings, free of license. Granted.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Alderman Passmore, in favor of laying down sidewalks on certain streets. Referred to the improvement committee.

Alderman Smith—To lay down a better sidewalk in the vicinity of the market houses, which, after some discussion, was referred to the market committee.

On motion of Alderman Smith, the city engineer be directed to repair the Monroe street bridge. Referred to the improvement committee.

By Alderman Smith:
Resolved, That no resolution be received or entertained by this board on and after this date, for any kind of pavement, except the Nicholson pavement. Tabled.

By Alderman Townsend:
Resolved, That the owners of all wharfboats at the landing be required to give bonds that they will remove the hull in the event of the boats sinking. Passed.

Alderman Townsend—An ordinance requiring monthly statements different from those now rendered by the city officers, passed first reading, and was referred to the ordinance committee.

Alderman Shaw moved that the question of the city printing be referred to the finance committee, to inquire whether it will be more profitable to have the printing at the rates of the Commercial and Argus, instead of the rates at which it had been done by the Avalanche. Passed.

Alderman Shaw presented a requisition from the sisters of charity, for supplies for the city hospital. Referred to the hospital trustees.

Alderman O'Donnell moved a resolution rescinding the appropriation for the maintenance of the metropolitan police giving as a reason that Chancellor Campbell had granted a perpetual injunction against the metropolitan police in Nashville, which, on motion of Alderman Johnson was laid on the table—ayes, 8; noes, 7.

Alderman O'Donnell, that the mayor be authorized to pay the expences of the funeral of the late Patrick O'Conner, late member of the hook and ladder company. Referred to the finance committee.

Alderman Lynn offered a resolution to the effect that the expense of the Nashville delegation be paid. Referred to the finance committee.

Alderman Lynn reported a bill from D. Cockrell for the sum of $1950 for expenses incurred in entertaining the congressional excursionists. Referred to finance committee.

By Alderman Bolling:
Resolved, That the mayor be authorized to advertise in accordance with the ordinance for bids for laying down the Nicholson pavement on Main, Poplar, Beal, Madison and Jefferson; and stone pavement on Front street, between Market and Union, Center and other alleys, were included in the resolution. Carried.

Alderman Bolling offered a resolution compelling parties who go to foreign cities to effect insurance be subject to a penalty for evading the revenue laws. Lost.

Alderman Bolling offered an ordinance instructing the mayor to hold an election on the 23d of February to take the sense of the people as to the funding of the floating debt of the city, which amounts to about $4,000,000, in bonds payable in twenty years, at 8 per cent. interest per annum. Passed first reading and referred to the finance committee.

By the same: Resolved, That the mayor be authorized to pay the claim of the First National bank incurred by the former board, $14,000. Carried.

By the same: An ordinance prohibiting the erection of swinging or projecting signs within the city. Adopted on its first reading, and referred to the ordinance committee.

Alderman Amis submitted an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to sell adulterated or unwholesome milk within the city; penalty not less than $10 or more than $50 for each offense. The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed a second and final reading. Adopted.

The same moved to rescind the resolution reducing the street force, and that a force not exceeding twenty men be employed.

After the transaction of some minor business the board adjourned.

FIRE ALARM.—The alarm of fire about eleven o'clock yesterday morning, was caused by the roof of Mr. Harvey's house, No. 31 Mulberry street, catching fire from the sparks coming out of the stove pipe. Only about $25 damage was done, the fire being put out before the arrival of the engines.

HUSBAND-WHIPPING.—Mrs. Bridget Harrigan made complaint against her liege lord, Michael Harrigan, to 'Squire Lee, and prayed that a warrant might issue for his arrest and trial for maltreatment of her, his lawful wife. Prayer of complainant being granted, Michael was arraigned before 'Squire Lee yesterday afternoon, and bound over in the sum of $2000 to keep the peace toward her, "or any other man." Michael gave bond and then had a warrant issued for her arrest on a charge of husband-whipping.

RUNAWAY.—The horses attached to a wagon on Main street, near Winchester, yesterday, became frightened and started pell mell down the street. When they reached the Overton hotel they collided with a milk wagon, upsetting it, spilling the milk in every direction, and throwing the money till of the concern in every direction, after which the animals broke loose from the wagon. They were caught several squares below, and it seemed a miracle to us that they did not do more damage.

STRIKING A WOMAN.—Mr. Justice Creighton issued a warrant yesterday for the arrest of a negro named Charlie, charged with striking a female of the same persuasion named Harriett Hale, with an iron bar, inflicting two severe wounds in the head. Bad boy, Charlie; a long term in the state penitentiary would do you good.

LECTURE.—A course of lectures are at present being given at the Congregational Union church, on Union street, between Second and Third streets, for the benefit of that temple of Divine worship. We are told that so far they have been very interesting, and the purpose for which they are given is of such worthy nature that the church should be crowded nightly. An extremely interesting lecture will be delivered this evening, and we trust a large attendance will be present. Doors open at 7; commence at 7½ o'clock. Tickets on sale at Bleock's, Chamberlin's and Tagg's.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The theater last night was filled to its utmost capacity with the beauty and fashion of Memphis; an audience of which M'lle Vestvali may well feel proud, for a larger or more select one has seldom greeted a "star" at the New Memphis. The "magnificent" appeared for the second time as "Gamea," in the thrilling drama of Gamea, or the Jewish Mother, and fully sustained the character as she does every other in which we have yet seen her. Mr. Wheelock, Mrs. M. Lanagan and the entire stock company supported her very ably. Mrs. Lanagan is growing in favor with our theater going people rapidly, and the applause with which she is greeted when she appears on the stage, must be very encouraging to that lady. The same piece will be repeated to-night.

AMES, WOODBURY & JONES.—We call attention to the advertisement in another column of this staunch firm, who keep constantly on hand the finest assortment of furniture, carpets, and every article of ornament or use to those desiring to furnish a house. They offer great inducements to purchasers, and we would advise persons desiring anything in their line to give them a call before buying elsewhere. Don't forget the place, Ames, Woodbury & Jones, No. 392 Main street.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Chancery Court of Memphis.—In consequence of the non-attendance of important witnesses in the cases set for yesterday, no business was transacted in the criminal court. The court convenes at 10 o'clock this morning, when all cases set for the week, from Monday to Thursday inclusive, will be called.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS AND MORTGAGES. Agatha to George F. Rowe, trust deed on lot of household goods, to secure $231. Joseph Goodman to James Levy, deed $297, interest on lot No. 150, Jackson street. J. T. Trezevant to Moses Levy, quit claim deed on lot on Poplar street. William. O. Herri to James B. Thornton, on back No. 20 to secure note payable to Walter Coleman for $300. John T. FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, Memphis, January 15, 1867.

There is an easier state of the money market to report now than last week. Customers find less difficulty in getting accommodation, but the rates are yet quite high, being fully 12 per cent. on first class paper. Money is more easy upon the street than for several weeks back, and good commercial paper is taken at 2 to 2½ per cent. per month. We learn of four transactions in government securities. Gold has fluctuated slightly, but brokers now pay 32c for all offered.

Silver is scarce—buying at 24 to 25c, and selling at 27 to 28c.

The demand for city scrip is dull and inactive. We quote heavy at 55c buying, and selling at 58 to 60c.

The demand for county warrants is not active, and prices are barely sustained at 90c buying—selling at 93 to 95c.

There is some change to note in exchange—buying at ¼ to ⅛ off, and checking at par to ⅛ off.

It will be seen that banks of all states have declined very heavily since our last. Banks of our own state continue firm at our quotations of last week, except the Bank of Chattanooga, which has gone down from 20 to 15c. There is but little uncurrent money offered for sale, and our brokers do not show much disposition to purchase. Our quotations will be found correct:

Some of the radical papers of the country are opening their eyes to the breakers ahead in financial matters. For months past there have been indications pointing to a monetary revulsion in this country. Shrewd men have observed them, but the great mass of the people have given them no attention. So far as congress is concerned, one would not suppose, from its legislation, that there is a single ripple upon the surface of the financial waters, or that such a thing is ever likely to occur. The danger is ahead, however, and both congress and the people should endeavor to make provision for it. No people ever did, and no people can long withstand such a pressure of taxation as that which now rests upon the people of the United States.

The estimated amount of revenue which the government proposes to raise next year is $560,000,000—an average of $16 for every man, woman and child, white or black, in the United States. This, be it remembered, is simply the revenue required for the use of the general government. In order to get at the actual burden of taxation, the various state, county and other taxes must be added to the above sum. Before the war the expenses of the general government were less than $100,000,000. We have now to make up the additional with resources greatly diminished.

Under such circumstances it is plain enough that we must fall unless relief can be had, and the signs of the times admonish us that the danger is drawing near.

What is the remedy? In the first place the government must not raise a revenue of $560,000,000, nor anything near it, for the coming year. It is a ruinous policy which aims to collect an immense revenue with the object of hastily paying the national debt. The proposed aggregate of taxation, in view of the threatening state of financial affairs, should be reduced so as to pay, next year, the government and the interest on the national debt. By this means the weight of taxation would be decreased nearly $200,000,000 for the coming year, which amount will otherwise apply upon the principal of the debt.

WAR PRICES IN PEACE TIMES.—With the inception of the late war, groans went up from fathers of families, old maids quacked, and penurious old men anticipated financial ruin at what was regarded as an uncalled for and enormous advance in the price of every commodity, not to say luxury, of life.

An examination respecting the advancement in the prices of the leading articles of consumption and of rents indicates an increase of nearly ninety per cent. in 1866, as compared with the mean of prices during the war.

Thus in 1860, cotton goods which could be purchased for six and eight cents per yard in gold, now command twenty [illegible] cents in currency. This is in a m[illegible] owing to the scant supply of the raw material as compared with that year, but even this we do not think warrants the exorbitant price demanded. On the manufacture of woolens suited for ordinary domestic use, the advance is estimated at 53 per cent. Ordinary ingrain carpeting has increased prices 75 per cent. On silk goods the advance is estimated above one hundred per cent.

While goods and articles of consumption have thus advanced, with very little seeming cause, the price of labor has not kept step—the compensatory law of supply and demand has not been rightfully regulated. While the producer has grown rich the consumer has been compelled to become an innocent accessory or forego the comforts which in days gone by were procured without great expense. In fact the close of the war has not brought about the promised reduction, but all are now paying war prices for peace commodities.

Now that the nation has ceased to beat with the pulsations of war, it becomes all who desire to see prosperity and mutual progression attend our efforts, not only to aid but promote the end by the means in our power; by a return to those fundamental laws which control wealth, economy, compromise and emulative rivalry unattended by envy or those obnoxious measures which serve to create a breach between capital and labor, the consumer and producer.—St. Louis Times.

The Financial Chronicle, in an editorial article on business prospects, remarks that "indications are not wanting which give hope of a revival of industrial and commercial enterprise, and we may probably look forward to the early removal of that gloom and torpor which have paralyzed, of late, some of the most precious and vital productive energies of the country."

Weekly Review.

Business has been dull in everything except cotton during the past week. The closing of the river above caused all articles of produce to rise in value early in the week, but the river being now open to St. Louis, prices are again declining to their old standard. Pork and cured meats are being received but slowly, and prices are yet firm at our quotations. The dry goods market remains as we left it at our last review. There has not been a lively business transaction during the week either at wholesale or retail. In boots and shoes we have no change to note—business has only been moderately active. The tobacco market remains firm, and with considerable activity. The anticipated reduction of the tax has already effected the liquor business to some extent, and whisky remains quite dull. Dead hogs are being daily received in considerable quantities and are in good demand.

COTTON—The transactions sum up quite well for the week—the shipments exceeding the receipts 1267 bales. We give a review of the market from day to day.

WEDNESDAY—The market was heavy during the day. Sales of middling were made at 31 to 31½c, and one sale of a bright style we heard of at 32c. Receipts for the day, 1888 bales; shipments, 3185 bales.

THURSDAY—The market has been dull. But few sales were made. Middling sold at 31 to 31½c. Receipts for the day, 1154 bales; shipments, 1264 bales.

FRIDAY—The market was variable during the day, with a little feeling toward the close. Prices, however, were a shade lower than on yesterday. Middling sold at 30c, while bright styles of that grade did, in some instances, bring 31c. Receipts for day, 1760 bales; shipments, 1944 bales.

SATURDAY—The market opened steady with a fair list of sales, and throughout the day exhibited a firm feeling. The favorable dispatches from New York had a corresponding effect on the market here, and holders were firm in their views, and asked full prices. We learned of sales of middling at 30½ to 31½c. Receipts, 1807 bales; shipments, 3730 bales.

MONDAY—The market was dull, and only a few sales of moment were made during the day. Middling sold at 30 to 31c. Holders do not seem as anxious to sell as they did a few days ago. Receipts since Saturday night, 3716 bales; shipments for the same time, 2162 bales.

TO-DAY—There was only limited inquiry at yesterday's figures. One lot of a bright style of middling was sold at our outside quotation. The market could be called heavy throughout the day. Receipts, 1060 bales; shipments, 367 bales. Total receipts for the week, 11,385 bales; shipments for the same time, 12,652 bales. We do not change quotations:

Addy, Hull & Co., of New Orleans, sum up the cotton business of the week ending Saturday last, at that port, as follows: We have to report for the week a dull and inactive market, with small sales, and a strong tendency at the close, to easier rates. Many factors, although anxious to realize, were loth to submit to the heavy concessions demanded by buyers, while the latter, in anticipation of further unfavorable advices, were equally indifferent about operating. The sales foot up 18,900 bales, against 32,050 last week, and 23,300 the week before. The receipts at this port since September 1st, excluding the arrivals from Texas, Florida and Mobile, are 370,404 bales, against 365,852 bales, at this date last year; and the decrease in the receipts at all the ports up to the latest dates, in comparison with last year, are 142,219 bales. In the exports from the United States to foreign ports, there is a decrease of 111,970 bales.

RIVER MATTERS.

Weather and Business.

The day just past was one of the most beautiful we have had for months—mild, with the sun shining as pleasantly as in October. Business was more than active on the landing—it was rushing. Every packet went out loaded with freight and people. Red river is falling all the way down. At St. Louis the river is falling slowly, with five and a half feet to Cairo. All the upper rivers are closed. At Cincinnati the Ohio is full of ice. At Louisville it is falling, with four feet ten inches in the canal. The ice there still looks dangerous.

Boats in Port.
G. W. Graham.

Miscellaneous.

The Clifton arrived at Cincinnati on Sunday last. The Darling and Silver Moon left there last evening for this port.

The St. Patrick, Commercial, Guidon and Mollie Hambleton all went out with splendid cargoes of freight and every deck covered with passengers.

The Ouachita must be high, as a large gin house floated past Monroe the other day. Col. Morrison got a line out and tried to check it, but failed.

The Vicksburg Herald says the Lida Norvell was sunk by floating ice, and that Capt Lewis kindly forwarded the crew to their homes.

The Ohio is reported gorged at Irish Jimmy's, between Cairo and Evansville. The gorge is said to be so heavy that boats can't get through.

The Cairo Democrat of the 13th says of the river to St. Louis: "The river between that city and this is in an awful condition. The channel in many places has entirely changed since the close of navigation, and at others so filled with sand as to be almost impassable, requiring pilots to move with the greatest care. Great masses of ice are piled up along the shore where the gorges were formed, the heaviest being at Dog Tooth and Hat island."

The Welcome is hard aground, and in a dangerous condition, above Cairo.

The Lady Gay is still laid up at Cairo.

The Walter B. Dance left St. Louis last night, for this port, in the packet line.

Nothing further has been heard of the sinking of the Sam. Gaty at Devil's island. She was bound from St. Louis to New Orleans with a valuable cargo. The St. Louis Democrat says she was remarkable for the great amount of freight she carried on a small amount of water. Her value was greatly enhanced by this fact. The Gaty was built in March, 1860, cost $35,000, actual tonnage 750. She is probably insured in St. Louis for near what would be considered her worth. She passed her career principally as a St. Louis and Missouri river packet.

The report of the local inspectors of New Orleans, appointed to investigate the Fashion disaster, has been published. They, after giving a few particulars already known, go on to say that all who availed themselves of the life preservers on board were saved, and add:

It has been the constant endeavor of this board, both in their official and social relations with the traveling public, to impress upon them the great virtue of life preservers and the necessity of seeing that their staterooms are provided with them as the law directs, and the great loss of life can only be attributed to the uncontrollable panic and confusion ensuing upon the discovery of the fire and landing of the steamer.

The origin of this unfortunate disaster was evidently through the lodgment of sparks from the chimneys, which again shows the importance of a strict compliance with the laws enacted especially to prevent such sad disasters.

The law requires all cotton on the decks or guards of steamers to be suitably covered, so as to avoid the danger of fire. It unfortunately appears in evidence in this case that the officers in charge of this boat were remiss in this important particular.

Very respectfully, your ob'dt. serv'ts,
W. C. FLANDERS,
C. [illegible] WHITMAN,
Local Inspectors.
To Hon. Wm. P. Kellogg, collector of customs, New Orleans, La.

Capt. Burnett, of St. Louis, has contracted at Madison, Ind., for a new boat for the Keokuk trade. She will be 250 feet long, 40 feet beam, 6 feet hold, and 26 inch cylinder. She will be set up on the marine ways as soon as the Richmond takes water.

The Mercury and Laurel Hill were both advertised to leave Louisville on Monday last.

We are happy to state that our esteemed fellow-citizen, Capt. James T. Bourne, who has been laid up for the past few days by a severe cold, will be out again to-day.

Advices from Rio to the 3d state that the Amazon river, up to Cautines, has been thrown open to the trade of all nations. This will be good news to Dick Johnson and others who intend to emigrate.

A company has been organized for bridging the Mississippi at St. Louis. Ten delegates, from New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore, will be invited to attend a convention next month for the consideration of measures for the improvement of the upper Mississippi river. Over seven hundred delegates will be invited from the cities and towns of Ohio, Mississippi, Illinois, Missouri and river valleys. Railroad fare and expenses for delegates while there, will be paid out of the fund raised for that purpose.

FOR ARKANSAS RIVER.—The fine steamer Only Chance is the only chance to get to Little Rock and Fort Smith today. Smith takes all the chances, and will be found a good officer. Larry Harmstad & Co., agents.

Having this day disposed of my interest in the Drug Store of Gilbert & Higbee to MANSFIELD & HIGBEE, I most cordially recommend them to my friends, and earnestly bespeak for them a continuance of the liberal patronage extended to our old firm while doing business as Druggists. I wish for them the same success which has attended the late partnership of Gilbert & Higbee. SAMUEL GILBERT.

This combination forms the most complete Drug Emporium south of New York, where every facility will now be offered the purchaser of buying goods on our line at manufacturers' prices.

We cordially invite and direct the special attention of all persons to this establishment before making their purchases either in the East or West, as our object and aim shall be to provide a HOME MARKET, and to defy competition with all other cities.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE REVENGE OF THE FLOWERS.

BY J. O. M.

On the couch's softest pillows
Stilly rests the slumbering maiden;
Closely-pressed her brown eyelashes,
And her flush'd cheeks crimson-laden.

Near her, richly cut and glittering,
Stands a vase with flower-wreaths drest,
Flowers dew-bathed and many colored,
Freshly torn from earth's fair breast.

All within her little chamber
Hangeth hot and sultry air;
And the still night-breath of Summer,
Close shut in, weighs heavy there.

It is still and deeply quiet—
When behold, among the flowers,
Starts a rustle and a murmur,
Whispering to those silent hours.

From the flower-bells, gently sweeping,
Come these spirits robed in air;
Shields they bear, with light emblazoned,
Crowns amid their flowing hair.

Starts a tall and graceful maiden
From the Rose's purple lap;
Pearls upon her forehead glisten,
Waving curls her bosom wrap.

From the "Iron Casque" up-springeth,
Girt with sword, a valiant knight;
From his helm a heron's feather
Pending, long and silver bright.

From the Lily sweeps a virgin,
With a veil of gossamer;
And so fair, the pale light brighter
Shines as it comes back from her.

From the "Turkish Turban," stalking
Proudly, comes a Moorish king;
With the half-moon's golden crescent
On his turban glistening.

From the "Emperor's Crown" there starteth
One with scepter-bearing hand,
While the rich blue iris yieldeth
From its cups his sword-girt hand.

From the languishing Narcissus
Comes a youth with saddened eyes,
Showering on the maiden kisses,
'Mid the torture of his sighs.

But the others, wildly circling,
Round the sleeper turn a wheel;
Wheel and turn, and in hush'd numbers
Bid this song unto her steal:

"Maiden, maiden, thou hast torn us
From earth's bosom cruelly;
And, in this gay vase imprison'd,
We must languish, fade and die.

"Oh, how blissfully we rested
On our mother's gentle breast!
Through the green leaves came the sunbeams,
And the hot kisses on us prest.

"And the breeze of Spring refresh'd us,
Bending o'er our gentle stems;
And the dew and rain around us
Hung in braids of sparkling gems.

"And in night we play'd as fairies,
Stepping from our leafy bowers;
While the stars a tender cadence
Sang for us, their darling flowers.

"Now dull water round us circles,
Fading in thy thoughtless thrall;
But before we perish, maiden,
Our revenge on thee shall fall!"

Then they gather round the maiden,
As it fades, that spirit strain;
And the rustling and the murmuring,
With the silence come again.

How the maiden's cheeks are glowing!
How the spirits breathe on her!
How the air is moved, and waveth
Round the fated slumberer!

Then the sunbeams greet the chamber,
And the shadows disappear;
But the couch on which she slumber'd,
It is now that maiden's bier.

With her cheeks still gently redden'd,
Cold that faded flower in death
Lieth 'mong her faded sisters—
They have kill'd her by their breath!

EVERY article usually kept by Druggists can be found here. My stock is all new and fresh, and such as I can guarantee. To the citizens of Memphis, Planters, Merchants, Physicians, and all who are in need of anything in my line, I would take this method of assuring them that their orders will be filled upon short notice and with such articles as can be relied upon. To those of my former patrons, who have dealt with me up to the time I was of necessity compelled to sell out, I would cordially ask a renewal of their acquaintance, assuring them that our past and former dealings is only a guarantee of what the future will be, promising always to do the best I can.

USE GALLIGHAN'S PILLS FOR CHILLS & FEVER
A CERTAIN CURE

GALLIGHAN'S PILLS are composed simply of Vegetable Medicines. They are Cathartic Pills, acting upon the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels; containing no Arsenic, Calomel, Blue Mass, or any other Mineral substance. The great advantage the Proprietors claim for these Pills is that, without the aid of Calomel, Blue Mass, or any other Minerals, they will cure the most obstinate cases of CHILLS AND FEVER, DUMB AGUE, PERIODICAL HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, and all affections of a like character. Follow the directions, and you will find they will do all that is claimed for them. Try one box, and their own merits will recommend them ever afterwards.

We have used Gallighan's Pills, and have never known them to fail to cure when the directions were followed, and unhesitatingly recommend them to public favor.

NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK
Just Published;
TABOR;
OR, THE
Richmond Collection of Sacred Music.
BY R. M. McINTOSH,
Of Virginia.

Essentially Southern in its main features, TABOR nevertheless contains a choice selection of the best Northern copy-right Music. Its author, for four years an officer of the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during its marchings and countermarchings in Virginia. The dirge used at the funeral of Gen. T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall) May 17, 1863, was from his pen, and is included in this collection.

"Mr. McIntosh," says the Richmond Whig, "is well known throughout the South as the author and teacher of finished excellence, with a musical reputation rarely attained by any man of his age in this country. In the South, he stands at the very head of church music, no one disputing the position with him."

The book embraces everything of value of Southern or Southwestern origin, much of which is now for the first time reduced to written form. Its variety is great—embracing all metres in use, in every key and every variety of measure—with a full elementary department and fine collection of new anthems, set pieces and sentences. It contains nearly 300 closely printed pages, neatly and tastefully gotten up, well printed and bound.

Price, $1 33, for which it will be sent, post free, to any part of the country.

Single copies, for examination and introduction, sent to any address, postage paid, on receipt of one dollar.
